SUBJECT LINE: Three Announcements: New Paying for Value Webpage, Accountable Community of Health Informational Webinar and Performance Measures Public Comment Period Coming to an End

Dear Feedback Network Member,

Paying for Value Webpage

The Healthier Washington website has added a new page: Paying for Value. This page outlines some of the strategies around payment redesign, including moving away from the traditional fee-for-service system and toward more value-based reimbursement strategies.

- Review the new page: http://www.hca.wa.gov/hw/Pages/paying_for_value.aspx
- If you have questions regarding payment redesign, contact Rachel Quinn, Special Assistant for Health Policy and Programs: rachel.quinn@hca.wa.gov

Accountable Community of Health Informational Webinar

There will be an Accountable Community of Health informational webinar on December 10. This is an opportunity for people from across the state to learn about this important initiative and ask questions of Chase Napier, the Accountable Community of Health Project Manager.

- Register for the webinar on December 10, from 2:30-4:00 pm:

Performance Measures Public Comment Period Coming to an End

The public comment period on the Performance Measures Final Draft Recommendations ends on Friday, November 21 at 5pm. Please review the 53 proposed measures and submit comments by that time.

- Review the measures set:
